Registration

- Students must be registered with Breckenridge ski school by December 15, 2017.
- 1st Payment of $181 per child must be made by credit card directly to Breckenridge (over the phone).
- 2nd Payment of $20 per child to South Park Rec Center via cash or check.
- Parents must complete a Ski & Snowboard School waiver for each child and turn them into the Rec Center.
- Questions should be directed to the South Park Rec Center Director - maggie@southparkrecreation.org, 719-839-1550.

Lesson Structure

- Classes will work on appropriate skills for the group.
- Once classes are turning and stopping they will learn to use the chair lift. (If the students have never skied before this will probably not happen on the first lesson.)

Chaperones

- Talk to the Rec Center director if you would like to Chaperone.
- Chaperones are responsible for assisting with group management, escorting students to and from "sick and sad resting areas", and riding the chair lift with students. Chaperones MUST always be with skiing group or in the ski school area. Chaperones leaving the area and/or free skiing will not be asked to return.
- Chaperones should have their own season pass/ticket. If not, Breck will supply 1 chaperone ticket per 6 kids.
